FARMERS ARE PLANNING TO FORM GIGANTIC WHEAT POOL TO CONTROL MARKETING AND SELLING OF GRAIN SUPPLY

Three-Day Session of National Farm Organization

Arrivals For The Big Meeting Numerous In Capital

Organization Already Controls 1500 Grain Elevators

Profits to be Stabilized And Consumer Benefitted

(By Associated Press)
Columbus, O., September 1.—Formation of a gigantic wheat pool in the United States whereby the farmers will control marketing and selling the grain, one of the important things being planned here by farmers who arrived this morning for a three-day session of the National Board of Farm Organizations.

More than 150 farmers, representing, it was said, practically every agricultural state in the union, are in attendance.

The Board of Farm Organizations now controls 1,500 grain elevators in the country.

Plans are to take over or build grain elevators at every point where wheat is shipped. It will be possible, it was said, to control forty percent of the country's wheat output.

"Profits will be stabilized and prices to the consumer greatly reduced," said Charles S. Barrett, Union City, Georgia, president of the organization.

Friday morning, Governor Cox will be interrogated and asked to fill out a special questionnaire. That afternoon, the farmers will go to Marion and present Senator Harding with the same questionnaire.

PREPARATION OF SPEECHES OCCUPIES TIME

Senator Harding Busy Outlining Policy On Agriculture

(By Associated Press)

Marion, O., September 1.—Preparation of a speech outlining the Republican policy on agricultural issues occupied the attention of Senator Harding today. The Republican nominee had kept his calendar clear for the day to work on the address, which will be delivered September 8 at the Minnesota state fair.

DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN TESTIFIES BEFORE PROBES—HAS NO PROOF

Believes Charges Made by Cox Are True

Because He Has Confidence In The Nominee

Says He Will Be Governed By Cox's Order

As To When Facts Are To Be Made Public

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, September 1.—George White, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, said on the stand today before the Senate committee investigating campaign expenditures that he had no evidence to sustain any one of the charges made by Governor Cox as to Republican campaign funds or the alleged desire of contributors "to have back of them in industrial centers the bayonets of their puppets in office."

He told Chairman Kenyon he believed the charges were true, because he had confidence in Governor Cox, but he had not discussed them in detail with the nominee and brought nothing from him to aid the committee in sifting them.

"I talked with Governor Cox last Sunday for a few minutes," said Mr. White. "I asked him: 'Are you sure of your ground?' he said he was, and I told him: 'You are the boss and you run it.'"

Pressed by his questioners, Mr. White said he was willing to abide by the judgment of Governor Cox as to when the material should be furnished the committee.

"Is it the idea, then, that we are to sit here and wait until Governor Cox is ready to come to us?" asked Senator Kenyon.

"I did not say that," replied Mr. White.

"But you have a speaking trip arranged for Governor Cox next week, and you would not wish us to interfere with that," argued Senator Kenyon. "In fact, we have no desire to interfere with it."

"The committee has jurisdiction over its own affairs," said Mr. White.

Mr. White, under questioning by Senators Spencer and Kenyon, said the only example of a "sinister" influence backing the Republican party which he knew of personally was the Republican year book being published by William Barnes.

Discussion of this book disclosed that photographic copies of pledges of "moral and financial" support to the book, signed by prominent Eastern men, including the Rockefellers, had disappeared from the record in which they were introduced Monday.

A heated clash between Senator Reed and Senator Kenyon followed when Senator Reed insisted on an investigation of the disappearance of the papers.

"Do you understand that these pledges related only to the support for the book?" Senator Kenyon asked Mr. White.

"They could mean anything," the witness answered.

Senator Reed read to the witness telegrams from Governor Cox to the committee and to Senator Reed, a member, dated August 24 and 23, and promising to furnish the investigators with information.

The latter message told the Missouri Senator that the candidate would "get some matters into your hands soon."

Mr. White said he had brought nothing for Senator Reed. The latter explained he had informed the candidate the committee would welcome any information.

Senator Edge asked if Mr. White would return any part of his campaign collections if the funds exceeded the $2,000,000 which he had estimated would be necessary.

"You were here when I said approximately $2,000,000," Mr. White replied, "and I qualified that by saying I would want to talk to men who know more about the matter than I do before fixing a definite amount."

TENN. HOUSE WIPES ACTION FROM SLATE

(By Associated Press)

Nashville, Tenn., August 31.—The Tennessee House of Representatives with a quorum present for the first time since August 20, expunged from its journal today all record of ratification of the Federal Suffrage Amendment and voted 47 to 24, with 20 not voting, to non-concur in the action of the Senate in ratifying the amendment.

Governor Roberts on being notified of the House's action, declined to make any statement other than to say that the situation could only be dealt with in a legal manner and was in the hands of Attorney General Thompson.

The latter in a letter read on the house floor during discussion of the matter of reconsidering the vote, expressed the opinion that reconsideration of the resolution of ratification was impossible, since the house already had adopted it and Governor Roberts had certified to Secretary of State Colby this action of both house and senate.

State officials and members of the legislature expressed the belief tonight that legality or illegality of Tennessee's ratification would be decided upon the record certified to Washington by Governor Roberts and not on the action taken by the house today.

BELFAST RIOTING IS AGAIN RESUMED

Heavy Firing in Streets Forecasts Many Casualties

Mill Whistles and Sirens Add To Din of Riots

(By Associated Press)

Belfast, Ireland, September 1.—Fighting was resumed here this morning between Nationalists, Unionists, shipyard workers and troops. Heavy firing continued nearly half an hour, and it is said the casualty list is heavy.

North Street was thronged with shipyard workers at 8 o'clock. Suddenly there was a series of revolver shots. Nearby military pickets rushed to the scene in Millfield Street, took shelter behind walls and poured in a fire, which was returned by snipers.

The battle was accompanied by the shrieking of mill and foundry sirens. Matters finally became too hot for the Sinn Feiners and they were dislodged, with the aid of an armored car.

The shipyard workers, in their zeal to help the soldiers, became a nuisance, and the commanding officers asked them to withdraw.

Tramcars caught between the opposing forces ran a gauntlet of bullets, the drivers cowering over their wheels and the passengers lying on the floors.

MACSWINEY IS STILL LIVING

Lord Mayor of Cork Spent A Restful Night

Unmistakable Signs of Severe Emaciation

(By Associated Press)

London, September 1.—Lord Mayor Terrence MacSwiney of Cork spent a restful night in Brixton Prison and secured several snatches of sleep. Although very weak, he was bright and cheerful this morning.

There were, however, unmistakable signs of severe emaciation, dullness of the eyes and general signs of sinking as a result of his long hunger strike. Mayor MacSwiney's brother remained with him during the night.

PALISADE MURDER LEADS TO ARREST OF GIRL'S HUSBAND

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schultz.

Following the recent murder of Mrs. Frank Schultz in the Palisades amusement park near New York city, her husband has been arrested as a material witness and locked up without bail. He protests his innocence, but the story he told the authorities has aroused their suspicions. He has not, however, been accused of the woman's murder.

COLVER ASKS HIS NAME NOT BE CONSIDERED

Federal Trade Commission Head Doesn't Seek Re-appointment.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, September 1.—Chairman W. B. Colver of the Federal Trade Commission notified President Wilson today that he did not wish his name considered for re-appointment to the commission at the expiration of his term, September 25.

In his letter to the President, Colver said he desired to engage in private business.

IN HOSPITAL BADLY BEATEN BY 3 BANDITS

Told Highwaymen He Had Swallowed Diamond Ring

(By Associated Press)

Toledo, O., September 1.—Sam Bell is in a hospital here as the result of telling three highwaymen that he had outwitted them by swallowing his diamond ring.

After taking $30 in cash from Bell, whom they had thrust into an automobile upon the approach of a policeman, the outlaws gave him a severe beating for placing the ring beyond their reach.

TWO DIE FLAMES DESTROY PLANE

All-Metal Mail Plane Crashes To Street

Hits Ground With Awful Thud And Bursts Into Flames

Mail Bags Scattered Broadcast In Tumble

(By Associated Press)

Morristown, N. J., September 1.—Two men, unidentified, were burned to death in a government all-metal airplane this morning, which went down in James Street, this city, at 7:30 today.

The plane was flying at a low altitude, and the pilot seemed to be experiencing trouble with the engine. Sounds of backfire were heard, and farmers in the vicinity who were watching its maneuvers saw the plane take a sudden dive and burst into flames.

It hit the ground with a terrific thud, and a tremendous explosion occurred, throwing mail bags hundreds of feet in every direction.

The pilot was pinned under the wreckage, and death was doubtless instantaneous. Although the bodies were not charred beyond recognition, the clothing was burned nearly off and it was impossible to identify them through this means.

A notebook found in the wreckage contained the name of T. T. Miller, and a collar was marked T. R. L. The mail bags bore the tags "Jefferson's Terminal, Chicago," and carried mail for Ohio, Nebraska and South Dakota. The greatest portion of the mail was completely destroyed.

DEPARTMENT MAKES KNOWN VICTIMS' NAMES

No Details As To Cause Of Accident Given Out

(By Associated Press)

Washington, September 1.—The Postoffice Department received a brief report today from Morristown, N. J., on the accident which resulted in the destruction of a mail plane there and the death of Pilot Max Miller and Mechanician Gustave Rierson.

No details were given, beyond the fact that the plane took fire in air. The plane was enroute to Cleveland and Chicago from New York.

GRAVE FEARS FOR SAFETY OF TWO HOSTAGES

No Information Obtainable As To American and Briton

Held For Ransom by Mexican Bandits

(By Associated Press) Mexico City, September 1.—Complete lack of information relative to the whereabouts of "Sandy" Gardner, a United States citizen, and W. B. Johnson, a British subject, who were kidnapped more than a week ago by Pedro Zamora, the Jalisco bandit, gives rise to fears that both may have been executed by the outlaws.

THE COCKERILL REUNION HELD AT CEDAR HURST

Large Family Enjoys Delightful Outing.

The Annual Cockerill reunion, held Tuesday at Cedar Hurst, with the Fite cottage headquarters, was a wonderful success and kindred brightly the flame of family interest. Over a hundred members of this prominent Fayette County family motored to the beautiful summer place, ideal for such a gathering with its stretch of woods and hills and flowing stream. Mr. and Mrs. Fite, assisted by other cottagers, extended with a free hand Cedar Hurst's hospitality and the out door amusements of the place.

At noon ample justice was done to the huge baskets, over laden with fried chicken, sandwiches, salads, jellies and jams, pies and cakes—all manner of luscious home cooked eatables. When spread upon long tables the dinner reminded one of feast of the multitude and there was enough over for another reunion.

After the dinner Miss Almada Cockerill read a most interesting original history of the Cockerill family, supplemented by Mr. Charles T. Lynch, of Bloomingburg with an enlightening talk upon his branch of the family. Mrs. Jean Nisley added much to the pleasure of the occasion in entertaining readings.

The annual election installed in office Herbert D. Cockerill, President, Ed Fite, Vice President, Willard R. Everhart Secretary and Treasurer.

Among those in attendance from a distance were Dr. Willard Cockerill, daughter, Janet, Miss Almada Cockerill, of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Cockerill, son and daughter, of Springfield, Mr. Elmer Cockerill, Mr. Ernest Cockerill and their families, Mr. A. G. Cockerill, daughter, Mrs. James Beatty of Greenfield, Mrs. Florence Adams Posch, of Kansas City, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Madden, Wilmington, Mr. Chas. T. Lynch and family, Bloomingburg.

ENTIRE VILLAGE IS DEPUTIZED

Sheriff Immel received a long distance call from "Squire" Lucas, of Massville Saturday requesting additional deputies to help keep the peace down that way when Reverend Rohrer resumed his duties as minister of the gospel. The constable informed the sheriff that he had already sworn in twenty-five deputies, the entire available supply in Massville, which would indicate that he had decided to prevent further disturbing of the peace by making every potential disturber an upholder of the law.—Chillicothe News.

MOTHER IS GIVEN CUSTODY OF CHILD

As a result of hearing proceedings in the habeas corpus action filed in Blanche Johnson, to obtain the custody of her 15-year-old daughter, common pleas court Monday by Ethel Johnson, the court awarded the custody of the child to the mother. The action grew out of the girl's detention at the county infirmary as result of investigation made by Probation Officer Mary Robinson. Prasecentor Harry M. Rankin represented the father.

HIGHLAND RICH IN EARTHWORKS ONE IS FAMOUS

Fort Hill, Brushcreek Township, Highland County is said to be the most interesting stone defensive work of the mound builders. This fortification, enclosing about 30 acres, encircles the top of a hill overlooking Brushcreek. The wall is built of stones piled up with earth used as a filler. On the northern tip of the wall a ledge of rock rises 20 feet above the rest of the wall. This seems to have been a beacon station, as evidences of fire have been found there. South of the fort are the remains of a village. Fort Hill is an ideal location for a defensive fortification, as it has an extensive view and might be easily defended. Its entire length is 8582 feet. It contains 50,856 cubic yards of material and at the present day, with our modern methods of construction it would cost not less than $20,000.

Another most interesting earthwork is that known as the Cooper Mound on the farm now owned by Chas. Fairley, near Leesburg. This mound was opened in 1879 and a full description of the results is given by Williams Bros. in their history. "The mound had a regularly stratified composition. The first layer consisted of about two feet of clean earth, free from stone or gravel. Then three feet of a loamy earth, similar to that which may be found in swampy grounds. Under this were ten or twelve feet of a hard compacted clay, which may have been brought to its present state by igneous action and which plainly exhibited in some places the efforts of intense heat. Under this layer was found three or four feet of ashes, charcoal, calcined bones and fragments of wood, and this stratum being removed, there was brought to light a thin layer of plaster-like substance in which were found human skeletons, stone implements, ornament, etc. The skeletons were five in number and lay with the craniums close together and the feet wide asunder. The form of the group might be described as like that of a star or like spokes in a wheel. One of the skeletons, a female, was asserted by some to be seven feet in height. — Hillsboro Gazette.

PAVED STREETS BOOST THE CITY

More Mileage Added to Paving by Recent Improvements

With the latest paving contracts nearing completion Washington is taking her place among other cities of the state in amount of paved streets, and with completion of the paving now under contract the city's improved streets are many miles in length, with highly improved roadways extending for some distance in all directions, making it possible to drive for a score of miles without leaving paved streets and highways.

As a result of the advantages enjoyed by those living on paved streets and the increased property valuation on these streets, a great many citizens living on the unpaved streets are very anxious to have their streets paved as soon as possible, but it is believed that no extensive paving will be done for at least another year, although completion of the West Temple, Water street and Dayton avenue paving is expected sometime in 1921. The necessary legislation having been passed for that improvement.

The improvement of the up-town streets, where resurfacing has converted the old streets into new, has caused a great deal of favorable comment and added greatly to the appearance of the up-town district.

SELLS RESIDENCE WILL MOVE SOON

Mr. John Worrell Wednesday sold his residence property on West Temple street to Mr. Chas. Ortman, who will move into the property in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Worrell and son Jack will soon move to Columbus to make their future home.

LARGE NUMBER TO TAKE SPACE FOR BIG FESTIVAL

Booths to Occupy Frontage On Principal Up-town Streets of City.

Plans Being Formulated to Make Week of September Fourteenth a Big One.

Score of business concerns of this city have contracted with the Fall Festival committee for booth space on the city's principal up town streets and still others are expected to occupy space before the opening day of the Fall Festival.

Contracts to-date insure booths occupying virtually all the up-town district, and these, together with the midway attractions which will be one of the features of the festival, will give the up-town district a very changed aspect from that of the present, particularly as all booths will be decorated and strung with electric bulbs of various colors.

The committee reports that indications point to a big week opening with September 14 and closing on September 18.

Those who have contracted for booth space to-date are:

(By Associated Press) Pottsville, Pa., September 1.—Between 25,000 and 30,000 miners will be on "vacations" in District Nine by noon, according to the reports received at various headquarters this morning. More than 20,000 were already out at 9 o'clock and the remainder were rapidly joining the movement.

ELECTRICIAN BADLY INJURED

Frank Thompson Falls in Probate Judge's Office and Strikes Head On Tile Floor.

While engaged in moving an electric light in the office of the probate judge, Wednesday afternoon, Frank Thompson, electrician employed by Bryson & Hay, fell from a high step-ladder and landed on the tile floor many feet below, inflicting a great gash over the left eye and injuring his hip.

Mr. Thompson was in a dazed condition but was speedily transferred to Dr. Brown's office where a number of stitches were taken to close the wound, and the injured hip was given attention.

He was later removed to his home. No serious results are anticipated, although it will be some time before he will be back at work.

FUTURE OUTLOOK OF CAMP SHERMAN

Four regiments of infantry will probably be maintained permanently at Camp Sherman under the new army corps plan, according to talk at central department headquarters, Chicago. The four regiments will form the infantry nucleus of the fifth army corps which will consist of two regular infantry brigades at Camp Sherman, national guard brigades of three states, a regular artillery brigade at Camp Knox, Ky., and a reserve of three states. The reserve exists purely in imagination but will be made a reality by conscription in case of an emergency.

This will give Camp Sherman 8400 men but that number will have to be secured by the recruiting efforts of the regiments. From present information, the infantry posts at Ft. Thomas, Ky., and Columbus Barracks will not be abandoned nor will the supply depot at Jeffersonville, Indiana.

Camp Sherman will be the training ground of the national guard of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, however, during the summer months. The guard of these three states are a part of the corps. It will be the mobilization point for the corps.—Chillicothe News.

Since 1907 this mill has always produced to the limit of its capacity, and during the past 15 years has never shut down for lack of orders.

A Ten-Year Contract

The prosperity of a factory depends upon being able to profitably sell its product after it is manufactured.

The entire output of the Mead Pulp and Paper Company has been contracted for during the next ten years. It has been contracted for on a cost plus basis that will show good earnings on both the preferred and common stock of this company.

Whether times are good or bad the mill of the Mead Pulp and Paper Company will run at capacity, because the management has only to supply the demand already contracted for. They don't need to worry about sales.

The Mead Pulp and Paper Company is one of the big producers in a basic industry. The record of past earnings and the certainty of present and future profitable sales make this stock a very attractive investment.

We offer it in blocks of three shares of 7% Special Cumulative Preferred and one share of Common for $390.

It Will Not Work

We may expect to hear a great deal of talk from the political orators from now until the campaign is ended regarding the reduction of working forces in industrial centers.

I will be charged that men are being discharged for the purpose of influencing the votes of their fellow workers.

That is an ancient wail and one which will scarcely deceive many voters at this time. Really to urge such a claim now seems an insult to the intelligence of the American working men who, now days, understand the readjustment processes that are occurring, just as clearly as most of the politicians and office holders and seekers—much better than some of them.

It is time that the high speed industrial activity of war times be shifted into low. During war times we were driving ahead under whip and spur, speeding up production in all lines of manufacturing, piling up, as a precaution, vast stores of surplus in all lines. The close of the war found the nation overstocked in many lines produced on a high cost basis of war time. To continue at that rate meant mounting prices so long as money to hold stocks and to continue to pile up the surplus was available.

There was only the one way to bring prices down and that was by limiting the borrowing capacity and refusing to encourage over production.

That has been done and it is inevitable that manufacturers, employers of labor, should be reducing the number of employees.

There is nothing intricate, nothing mysterious about the processes now occurring and the intelligent American laboring men will not be deceived.

Far Off The Track

A fair sample of just how far off the right track we have strayed, in our conception of the functions of government relating to individuals, is furnished in the appeal made by the sugar dealers of Ohio, asking the federal government to protect them, until they can dispose of present stocks, against a decline in the price of sugar.

The dealers asking protection at the hands of the government may be perfectly innocent of any connection with the cornering of the sugar supply which took millions of dollars from the purses of the American people by a process so unjust as to be little if any short of downright robbery. They probably are innocent of wrong doing in that respect, there is no reason to doubt their statement that they are victims of the conspirators. They may have, probably did, act in good faith in loading up on sugar to protect the consumers, but that was their business. That is what they should have done.

If they have been caught and are facing a loss they are in no worse position than the consumers have been during the past four or five months.

This latest development in the sugar situation is proof that in seeking special privilege in our mistaken idea that the government can, or should, protect the few, has progressed to the Nth degree.

Every individual in business must take his chances under general laws without special protection from the government. This is a government of and for the many and not the few.

The Grind Begun

The Senate committee having authority to investigate campaign funds, receipts and expenditures, of the political parties has entered upon the discharge of its duties.

The opening sessions were held in Chicago on Tuesday and judging from the developments of the first session, the inner workings of the financial features—at least the preliminary operations—of the campaign, will be pretty thoroughly bared to the public gaze.

There are certain to be wild claims made by intense partisans and conflicting statements, as to detail, some of them important, but there is strong probability that during the campaign as the investigation proceeds there will be in the mass of disclosure, important and trivial, before the committee some things which will be of assistance to the public in arriving at a conclusion before the day of election rolls around.

POETRY FOR TODAY

KNOCKERS

I heard a fellow growling t'other day
upon the street

About the weather. And his howling it was pretty hard to beat.

He allowed, as how in April when it should be warm and bright.

The one who planned the seasons sent us March then just for spite.

He's the forty seventh knocker that
I've heard within a week—

I keep a record of them, so I know whereof I speak—

But the worst old chronic knocker, and the one who heads my list
Is a farmer down near Wheaton by the name of Andy Grist.

He always was complaining about the weather, crops or tax;

His oats was rotting in the ground,
his hay spoiled in the stacks.

Or when a little dry spell came that rather slowed the grain.

He said, "I'll surely starve next year unless I get some rain."

And then one bright and pretty day
real early in the fall,

I saw old Andy cutting corn, 'twas nearly ten feet tall

And earned, I said, "Well, Andy, you're well paid for all your toil."

"A monster crop like that," he whined, "is hard upon the soil!"

"Bow!"

COX AND WATKINS SPEAK AT THE FAIR

Mr. Roosevelt Also Makes Short Talk—Gov. Cox Declares He Is Not For An "English League"

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, August 31. — Governor James M. Cox and Aaron S. Watkins, two of Ohio's presidential candidates, and Franklin D. Roosevelt, Governor Cox's running mate divided time in addressing the Ohio State Fair crowd here today.

Governor Cox, voicing the Democratic party's stand on the league of nations declared for the league and criticized the plan put forth by Senator Harding.

Mr. Watkins criticized both the plans sponsored by his two opponents and also criticized both the Republican and Democratic parties for not taking a stand on prohibition, which he declared to be the paramount issue.

Mr. Roosevelt spoke on agricultural subjects.

In his discussion of the league of nations, Governor Cox made reference to approval of the plan recently announced by Senator Harding of Viscount Gray former foreign secretary of England.

NOT FOR ENGLISH LEAGUE

"Well," the Governor said, "we are not going to permit Viscount Gray or any other statesman to write our agreement. We are not for an English league. We are for a world league of nations."

"I may surprise you," Governor Cox said, "when I say that the people all over Germany are hoping and praying that the voice of America will be asserted in the international affairs of the world, and that America will cast the deciding vote and determine what Germany's indemnity ought to be."

ADVANCE IN FARM VALUES IN TEN YEARS

Surprising Increase in Ohio Land Values Shown By Census Bureau Statistics.

Washington, Sept. 1. — Surprising increases in farm values in Ohio are shown by reports of the census bureau just made public. For instance, the farm census of Marion county, Ohio, shows that the value of all farm land and buildings in that county by the census this year is $38,436,359, as against $20,832,513 in 1910. This is an increase during the decade of $17,603,846 or 85.5 per cent.

During the decade the farm values in Gallia county increased from $5,870,382 to $9,826,895 or 65.7 per cent.

In Ashland county farm values increased during the same period from $15,973,541 to $22,624,276, or 41.6 per cent.

In all of these counties there has been a marked decrease in the number of horses and sheep. In Marion county there are 8685 horses and 38,706 sheep this year as against 10,081 horses and 73,785 sheep in 1910.

In Gallia county there are 6547 horses and 13,544 sheep this year as compared with 6997 horses and 31,726 sheep in 1910.

Ashland county has 9046 horses and

BUILDING AIRSHIPS IN GERMANY FOR AMERICA

Korn, O., August 28.—Two super-Zeppelins, of the largest type ever constructed, are now being built in Germany for American interests for use in freight and passenger service between Berlin and San Francisco, via New York, according to John R. Gammer, aeronautical expert of the B. F. Goodrich Tire and Rubber company who has just returned from a business trip abroad.

A prominent American automobile manufacturer and the Hamburg-American Steamship company are financing the project, it is said.

If There Was No Difference

What a glorious thing for the motorist that would be—if all tires were alike, one as good as another. Then, and only then, you would be safe in buying tires just any place and buying just any kind; you would run no risk and the man who had the lowest price would get all the business. But it is a well known fact that there and that you are NOT safe in buying just anywhere and just any kind. We all know there are tires that LOOK good and are offered at prices SEEMINGLY low, but when we stop to think and to figure them on the cost per mile of road service, they really are expensive and an extravagance.

Is a Vast Difference in Tires

It is not extravagance to buy good quality in anything, and it pays tremendously in buying Automobile Tires. Deal with the firm you know; the one with a reputation for fair dealing and honest values and you're safe, because such a dealer will have only good tires and good service. Inspect our line of established brands and learn our methods and notice the men who stop here for tire service and you may learn something interesting. Good tires with service Plus here always.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

The Daughters of the American Revolution Year book for 1920-1921 is now in the hands of the Daughters and forecasts a year of patriotic interest and social pleasure.

The book is tastefully gotten up in the usual cover, army blue, lettered in silver, and bears the D. A. R. insignia.

In reading the programs planned for the meetings, the first Monday of each month, it is noted with approval that the Daughters are going to turn part of their patriotic efforts to their home town, as is indicated by the programs devoted to Public Health, Public Morals and Our Town Industries.

The Daughters realize that "a small town, well governed, is better than all wicked Babylon" and that there is nothing more important than to improve their own home town and build it up in every possible way.

The first meeting will be held on Monday afternoon, October the fourth at the club rooms.

The Year Book Committee, working with the Regent Mrs. Annette M. Rowe, was composed of Mrs. Haldee Van Winkle Coffman, Mrs. Ella Renick Allen, Mrs. Blanche Cockerill McPadden.

The elopement of two well known young people and their marriage in Covington Kentucky on Monday became known Tuesday evening and has greatly stirred the interest of a large circle of relatives and friends. The bride, Miss Alice Parrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Parrett, and the bridegroom, Glenn Bush, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bush, of Selden, quietly slipped away Monday evening to Covington, where the nuptial knot was tied and returned on Tuesday to the Bush home.

The bride, who had not yet finished her high school course, was preparing to enter school in Cleveland this Fall and make her home with her sister, Mrs. Earl Peterson. A note to her parents, telling of this unexpected change in her plans was found in her room.

The extreme youth of both bride and bridegroom had prevented their families from anticipating an early marriage, although they had been sweethearts during their high school days.

The bride is an unusually beautiful girl and wore a tailored suit of dark blue, with Fall hat of black velvet. The bridegroom, a very likable young fellow, has been associated in farming with his father. Future plans are as yet indefinite and for the present the young couple will be with the bridegroom's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Bush attended the State Fair Wednesday.

Mrs. W. H. Lipsett, who with her family is spending several days at the Walter Craig cottage at Cedar Hurst gave pleasurable entertainment to the Tuesday Kensington Club, with a few women of the neighborhood as additional guests.

Mrs. Lipsett further supplemented the pleasures of the afternoon by serving a dainty collation.

Mrs. Compton Aldrich and two sons, Compton Jr. and George Saxton, of Detroit, Mich., are visiting Mrs. Aldrich's brother, Mr. Fay Sever and family. Mr. Frank Sever accompanied them from Detroit for a couple of days visit.

CAR RECOVERED WAS ABANDONED

J. M. Baker Studebaker Machine Located Near Williamsport

Receiving word Wednesday morning that a Studebaker automobile answering the description of the machine stolen from the J. M. Baker garage in this city recently, had been abandoned on the roadside four miles east of Williamsport, Chief of Police D. L. Moore went to the scene and easily identified the machine as that owned by Mr. Baker.

The car had been abandoned along the road at nine o'clock Tuesday night, and was evidently headed toward this city. The gas tank was empty.

The speedometer indicated that the car had been driven some 300 miles since it was removed from Mr. Baker's garage, but was in good condition, and little the worse for its unknown journey.

It is believed that the machine had been taken by some one familiar with the surroundings, and that if they had not run out of gas probably would have returned to this city, possibly with the intention of replacing the machine in the Baker garage or leaving it at some other point in the city.

The investigation, it is announced, will not stop with the recovery of the car and arrests are anticipated in the near future.

ABLE LECTURES HOLD INTEREST OF 90 TEACHERS

Prominent Instructor From Des Moines, Iowa, Addresses Teachers Wednesday.

Professor Keith Offers Many New and Practical Ideas in Series of Lectures

With ninety of Fayette county's school teachers in attendance the third day of the Annual Institute of the teachers of Fayette county opened Thursday morning with promise of some of the most helpful addresses of the entire session. Dr. Herbert Martin, of Des Moines, Iowa, augmenting the speaking staff and delivering two interesting addresses on timely topics. He was up to the same high standard of last year.

Professor Charles A. Keith also delivered two of his best lectures during the Wednesday sessions. He has demonstrated his ability to hold the interest of the teachers by offering many original thoughts of the decidedly helpful nature in the school room.

One of the most interesting addresses of Wednesday was that of Mrs. E. T. Cartwright, of the state department of health, who made a strong plea for the teaching of sex hygiene in the public schools, declaring that this vitally important matter was sadly neglected in the home and that as a result the school should be the proper place for teaching sex hygiene. Her remarks made a favorable impression upon the teachers of the county.

Tuesday afternoon Prof. Keith continued his discussions on Capital and Labor and its effect on the schools of the country and its relation to the teachers.

Dr. J. H. Francis, of Columbus, in delivering his last lecture Tuesday afternoon, took up the question of legislation both state and national, and the need of more attention on the part of the legislative bodies to the child instead of devoting so much attention to inconsequential affairs and playing politics.

One reason for the absence of many of the teachers is the fact that many of them are non-residents of Fayette county, and are probably attending the institute in their home county. Ninety out of 145 teachers are enrolled.

The enrollment follows:

Edna Thompson, Georgia Taylor, Nell Street, Howard S. Grimm, M. E. Wilson, Stella Wentz, Margaret McKillip, Mrs. Oliver S. Creamer, Ada Woodward, Mary Weaver, Emily Palmer, Opal Moore, Margaret Parrett, Gladys Melson, Agnes Kerrigan, Emma Wood, Della Moore, Susie Templin, Marie Hughes, Dorothy Ware, Zol Colaw, Mrs. Bonna Kelley, Marie Nisley, Lulu Rowan, Maude E. BIRTHS GREATLY EXCEED DEATHS IN WASHINGTON

Hundred Eighty-nine Births Registered and Hundred And Nine Deaths During Period of January First to September First.

Health Officer Byron Issues Statement on Vital Statistics And Other Work.

In a statement issued Wednesday Health Commissioner John W. Byron announces that during the eight months period ending August 31st the total births registered reached 189 and possibly will be near 200 when all are registered, and that in the same period of time the number of deaths totaled 109, or that there were nearly two births for each death.

Mr. Byron's statement follows:

"In the registration of deaths we have them all by the close of the month and can give the correct number, but it is different with the births for we may not register all the August births before the last of September or October. Once in a while we get a birth two or three three months back. The number of births we give are from January 1, 1920 to September 1, 1920 which falls short of the actual number for that period about 8 percent.

Births registered January 1, 1920, to September 1, 1920, 189.

Deaths for same period, 109.

Deaths by months:

January	9
February	16
March	13
April	17
May	13
June	10
July	12
August	19
Total	109

DELCO PLANT LIGHT FESTIVAL

Fall Festival Committee Closes Deal For Lighting Booths During Fall Festival.

Failing to receive assurance from The Washington Gas & Electric Company that electric current would be furnished for lighting booths of the Fall Festival, the Fall Festival Committee, after several days of planning, Wednesday afternoon closed a deal with the Delco Light Company, of Dayton, for furnishing light to the booths and various places where electric current was required to make the affair a success and insure proper lighting at night.

For some time the committee has been unable to close a contract with the company in this city to take care of the lighting, due to the announced policy of the company to decline further extensions or additional service until rates were increased and the action of contract with the Delco people was taken as a last resort.

Three car loads of equipment are expected within the next 24 hours, and the erection of the booths will be under way with in the next few days.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR EX-SOLDIERS

Local Y. M. C. A. Has Four Free Scholarships Available.

Four free scholarships are available at the Young Men's Christian Association for any ex-service man who desires to take advantage of the opportunity to increase his training in some college.

The International Y. M. C. A. is devoting a large fund to free scholarships for ex-service men and more than $500 of the fund is available to Fayette county's Association and this provides for four free collegiate scholarships for ex-service men.

Application should be made either in person or in writing, and the Y will give immediate attention and see that the scholarships are turned over.

This liberal action of the Y. M. C. A. is expected to result in hundreds of ex-service men obtaining scholarships that will be of great value to the fortunate applicants.

Y SECRETARY GOES TO NEWARK

General Secretary Forrest L. Fraser Becomes Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Newark, Ohio.

After one year of service in which he has worked wonders in building up the Y. M. C. A. in this city, General Secretary Forrest L. Fraser Wednesday took his departure for Newark, O., where he is now pastor of the First Baptist church of that city, having accepted the offer some time ago, at which time he formally tendered his resignation as general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at this point.

Rev. Fraser was formerly engaged in the ministry and because of his special training and work in the Y. M. C. A. he proved a most valuable man in the community, and his sermons at various points in the county placed him in front ranks as a minister as well as an energetic secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Within a short time Rev. Fraser will move his family to Newark and make that city his permanent home.

One year has elapsed since Rev. Fraser took charge of the work in this city, and the present condition of the institution bears evidence of his successful administration.

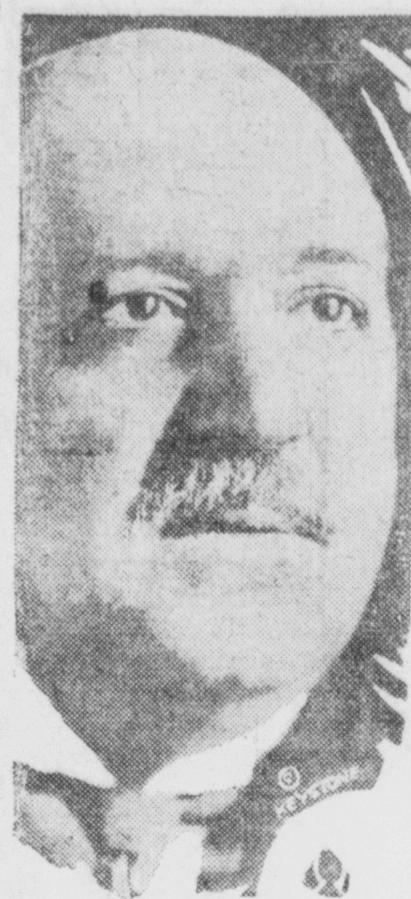

His successor has not been named.

BIG CORN STALK EASILY OUTDONE

Mention is made of the huge corn grown in Greene county, one stalk on exhibition in Xenia measures 14 feet six inches in height.

However Fayette county is also

Georges Roussos, Greek minister to the United States, has been appointed diplomatic representative of his country at Constantinople and will leave Washington shortly for his new post.

"there" when it comes to producing big corn, and one instance is cited in which Fayette county corn measured 17 feet 3 inches in height, and a man over six feet in height standing erect could not reach the top of the ear on the stalk by using a corn knife with a 20 inch blade.

LANDED THE BUNCH THEY HAD PERMIT

When a party of young men from Columbus reached a point in Madison county, a few days ago, and proceeded to use a 25 foot seine in catching fish, two or three deputy state game wardens were soon on the job, including Deputy Frank Hard of this city.

The wardens dropped down upon the bunch and gathered them in, but no formal arrests occurred, as the seiners had permission from the State Fish and Game Department and were merely looking for specimens of fish to be used in their studies at the O. S. U. The group consisted of students, who enjoyed the situation and complimented the Deputies on the fact that they were on the job to prevent any real violation.

JUST THRESHING IN NORTH OHIO

Persons passing through the northern part of the state recently say that threshing is just well under way, and that most of the farmers have waited with their wheat threshing until their oats crop was ready for threshing.

The oats crop is a big one and will not be in the bins before the middle of the present month. The wheat crop was only fair.

41 BOOTLEGGERS DRAW $500 EACH

Forty-one bootleggers in Perry county were arrested last week and each man drew a fine of $500 and the costs when taken before the justice of the peace in New Straitsville.

The leggers were rounded up by Internal Revenue men assisted by Anti-Saloon League men.

For sometime New Lexington and other Perry County towns have been very wet, and the little clean up and fines assessed came as a big surprise to the sellers.

WATER IS PURE NO COMPLAINT

No Contamination of Local Water Supply for Over Year.

The water supply of the city is absolutely pure, according to frequent reports from the State Board of Health, which makes analysis of the water nearly every week, and reports indicate that the water supply has been beyond all suspicion of the least bit of contamination for the past year.

The chlorine treatment is used at the pumping station, and while some city water companies have been unable to obtain an adequate supply of the chemical, the use of which is required by the state, the supply at the local plant is sufficient for several months, and more is enroute from the plant where it is produced.

The dam erected across Paint creek a few years ago, and which resulted in the formation of a large reservoir about the well of the company, has been adequate to maintain an abundant supply of water on virtually all occasions, and this year no water shortage is anticipated because of the excessive rains in August.

The reservoir formed is becoming filled with waterplants of various kinds, and all the trees in the inundated area have died.

ROSS SCHOOL HEAD ASKED TO RESIGN NEW HEAD NAMED

A. W. Whetstone, superintendent of the schools of Ross county, has resigned, presumably at the request of the board, and J. L. Fortney of Clarksville has been selected to fill the vacancy for the next two years.

In connection with the resignation the Chillicothe Gazette says:

"Mr. Fortney, the new county superintendent, is a very able man of high integrity and earnestness of purpose. He has made a most excellent record as assistant superintendent and should make his work count in his new position."

"The resignation of former County Superintendent of Schools A. H. Whetstone was most timely, members of the County Board of Education stated Tuesday."

"It is understood that several matters have been laid before the Board during the past few weeks, which had almost induced them to ask for Whetstone's resignation."

The Economy of Using Goodyear Small Car Tires

So-called bargain tires, made up for sensational sales and offered at ridiculously low prices, do not attract careful buyers.

They are far more concerned with what they get than with what they pay because they know that in the end it is performance and not price that delivers actual tire economy.

The popularity of Goodyear Tires, of the 30x3-, 30x3½- and 31x4-inch sizes, is based on the fact that they deliver exceptional mileage at exceedingly low cost.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes.

30 x 3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread	$23.50
30 x 3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread	$21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost no more than the price you are asked to pay for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casings when such sure protection is available? 30 x 3½ size $4.50 in waterproof bag

'UNCLE BEN' AT 77
NOW TELLS SECRET

Couldn't Eat a Square Meal For Seven Years—Spent a Fortune On Health.

"I wouldn't be without Tanlac if it cost five dollars a bottle," said B. H. Anderson, of 235 Ludlow street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mr. Anderson, or "Uncle Ben" as he is called by his many friends, although now seventy-seven years of age does not look to be past sixty and says since taking Tanlac he feels as well as he did at the age of sixteen. He was a resident of Batavia, Clearmont county, Ohio for seventy-two years, was a blacksmith at Summer Side, Ohio, for thirty-five years and is highly esteemed by all who know him.

"For the past eleven years," said "Uncle Ben" "I have been suffering terribly with my stomach. I was under treatment a number of times and spent a small fortune trying to get well. I suffered from what was called acute indigestion, and for seven years I wasn't able to eat a square meal, lived mostly on milk and toast and if I ventured to eat something a little heavy I simply suffered agony with pains in my stomach and chest. Even the lightest food made me sick. I was also badly constipated and had sick headaches. I had to give up my work, as it was all I could do to get around, just couldn't walk any distance without getting dizzy and would have to sit down to keep from falling. Why, people thought I was going to die, for I just suffered day and night and couldn't even get out of the house."

"I started taking Tanlac five years ago and in a few days got so I could eat just anything. It simply made me feel fifty years younger and today I feel as well as I did when I was a boy. Since I began taking Tanlac, I have actually gained forty pounds in weight and am heavier than I ever was in my life. I would not be without Tanlac if it cost five dollars a bottle and I just can't say to much for it."

Tanlac is sold in Washington by C. S. Haver, in Lowell by Mason's Drug Store, in Jeffersonville by J. B. Davis, in Octa by I. W. Murphy and in Millersville, E. L. Ford Sons, Lee Orman, Selden. — Adv.

NUXATED IRON

Dr. Ferdinand King, New York Physician and Medical Author, says:

"It is my opinion that in practically nine times out of ten, an anemic nervous and failing strength and vitality are due to deficiency of iron in the blood. I am convinced that there are thousands who, simply by taking Nuxated Iron, might readily build up their run-down constitutions, increase their physical energy and eat themselves back to vibrant and vigorous health."

NO QUARANTINE
FOR MAN? MONTHS

Health Officer Byron reports that there has been no contagion requiring a quarantine within the city limits during the past several months—a thing out of the ordinary as there is usually one and sometimes several cases under quarantine.

This lack of contagion is believed to be due to the care exercised by the Health Board through the executive officer, and the attention given to sanitary conditions. Health Officer Byron has been looking after various complaints and bringing about relief wherever possible.

CHAS. T. WARNER
OUT FOR JUDGE

Former Fayette Countian Seeks Judicial Post in Franklin County.

Attorney Charles T. Warner, of Columbus, former Fayette county man who was born near Cooks, has filed his nomination petition for Common Pleas Judge of the Franklin County court as an independent candidate. His petition carried 2,000 names.

The Columbus Citizen referring to Mr. Warner says in part:

"Mr. Warner has practiced law in Columbus for 21 years. He was a member of the Columbus Civil Service Commission for five years and served four years on the Board of Education. In 1915 he ran for mayor and was defeated by only a few hundred votes. He is married and resides with his wife and two children at 713 Wilson Ave."

"Mr. Warner was urged by his friends to enter the August primaries as a partisan candidate. But he did not do so because he believed that, since the election of judges is non-partisan, the primary nominations should be non-partisan also."

"Mr. Warner is the seventh candidate to qualify in the judicial race. At the primaries the Republicans nominated four and the Democrats two. Mrs. Dora Sandoe Bachman, for whom petitions are being circulated, will make the eighth entry. Four are to be elected."

68 OHIO SCHOOLS
HAVE "AG" CLASSES

There are 68 schools in Ohio which have the Smith-Hughes Agricultural classes—and Washington C. H. was among the first to adopt the course and make it a thorough success under the management of Prof. Harbaugh.

It is expected as the value of the classes is realized that the number will increase rapidly, as farmers all over America are fully awake to the importance of proper teaching of agriculture in order to make farming a more thorough success.

Indications are that the Smith-Hughes class in the Washington school this season will have many new pupils enrolled, all eager to get at the practical end of agriculture.

COMMERCIAL TREATIES
MAY BE ABROGATED

(By Associated Press)
Washington, September 1.—Complete examination by the State Department of commercial treaties to which the United States is a signatory has revealed that between twenty-four and twenty-seven of such pacts may have to be abrogated under the new merchant marine act, it was said by the Department officials.

Section 34 of the merchant marine act requires the President within 90 days, or by September 3, to give formal notice to foreign governments having commercial treaties with the United States, that the American government intends to revoke any clauses of the conventions which prevent the giving of preferential treatment to Americans or American ships. Officials expressed the belief today that entire abrogation of the treaties would result from the notice of the President.
